

The WALTER CARRINGTON EDUCATIONAL TRUST

BURSARY APPLICATION

The Walter Carrington Educational Trust (WCET) has a Bursary Fund for students training at the Constructive Teaching Centre (CTC). The Fund depends on donations, so the amount available for bursaries may vary from year to year.

Bursaries are for those in financial need, and who are considered suitable for the teacher training course. You are eligible to apply if you have applied to become a student at the CTC, or are already a student.

The Bursary Fund is administered by the Bursary Committee. This committee is formed of WCET Trustees and other volunteers. The Bursary Committee does not include any teachers employed by the CTC, or other employees of the Trust. The Committee does, however, canvass the opinion of the Head of Training as to progress or suitability of the candidate.

The Bursary Committee may meet up to three times per year to consider applications for bursaries to start within the following 12 months and may, if funds are available, award bursaries to cover 25% of the CTC's tuition fees for each of the three years of the training course, subject to satisfactory reports from the teachers.

The Trust respects the confidentiality of bursary awards made, and recipients are expected to do likewise. All unsuccessful applications will be destroyed within three months after the Committee has decided on the awards. The Committee's decision is final.

Applications for bursaries to start in 1. the Spring term are to be received no later than 15 October; 2. the Summer term are to be received no later than 15 February; and 3. the Autumn term are to be received no later than 15 July. Interviews will normally take place month following the deadline. Successful applicants will be informed in writing.

There is no upper age limit, but applicants must be over 18 years. For those aged under 25 years the application must take into account parents' or guardians' income.

If applicants are not already on the course, or have not already been offered a place, they will need to apply to join the training course at same time as applying for a bursary. Bursary awards are conditional upon the student being offered and taking up a place on the training course. There is no limit to the number of times a student or prospective student can apply.

An applicant considered by the Bursary Committee to be a potential candidate for a bursary award will be invited to attend an interview at which their bursary application will be discussed in more detail.
